And there's no limit to what they'll do . . . as long as it's with each other.

This particular performance takes place in a luxurious home high in the Hollywood hills, sponsored by a jaded movie magnate who thought he had seen everything.

Meet "Penny"

ANYBODY CAN...FOR A PRICE

Jennifer Weller, an attractive and sensual young suburban housewife, enjoys a good relationship with her husband Eddie, but Jennifer is bored.

Therefore, when Jennifer's friend Marian Harris visits one morning and suggests that they cruise about in search of a "few laughs," Jennifer is able to rationalize away her trepidations.

The girls visit a bar in the nearby city. There they meet two young salesmen who are visiting the city. After a few drinks the girls visit the salesmen's motel room where Jennifer's guilt feelings bubble over to make her beat a fast retreat back to the bar. Marian, however, stays about and accommodates her newly found friend.

A TRIANGLE OF ABNORMAL LOVE THAT

In the bar Jennifer strikes up a conversation with a young guitar playing artist who persuades her to go with him up to a toft where a group of young artists live communally and without the moral restraints that ordinarily govern groups, even of this sort.

When Jennifer meets Seth Leonard, the leader of the colony, she is immediately fascinated by the unconventional attractiveness of the artist.

Both Seth and his girlfriend Alexis sense that Both Seth and his girlfriend Alexis sense that Jennifer and Marian can be of use to them financially since the art group is constantly in monetary distress.

To suck Jennifer and Marian in, Seth and Alexis rig a dance session participated in by the members of the group with erotic overtones. Marian is immediately caught up in the sexual moment and joins in the voluptuous excitement.

Jennifer is repelled, but cannot wipe the spectacle from her mind. In the middle of the night she is haunted by the music, the frantic movements of naked bodies. She climbs from her bed without awakening her husband and returns to the loft to make love with Seth before the eyes of Alexis. With the ice broken Jennifer commits herself totally to the group and she and Marian throw themselves into the multiple sex concepts of the artists.

THREE WOMEN WHO LIVED FOR THE

The occupants of this house live in a veritable passion pit. An orgy is almost constantly in session — its size and degree of intensity depend on who is there at the time.

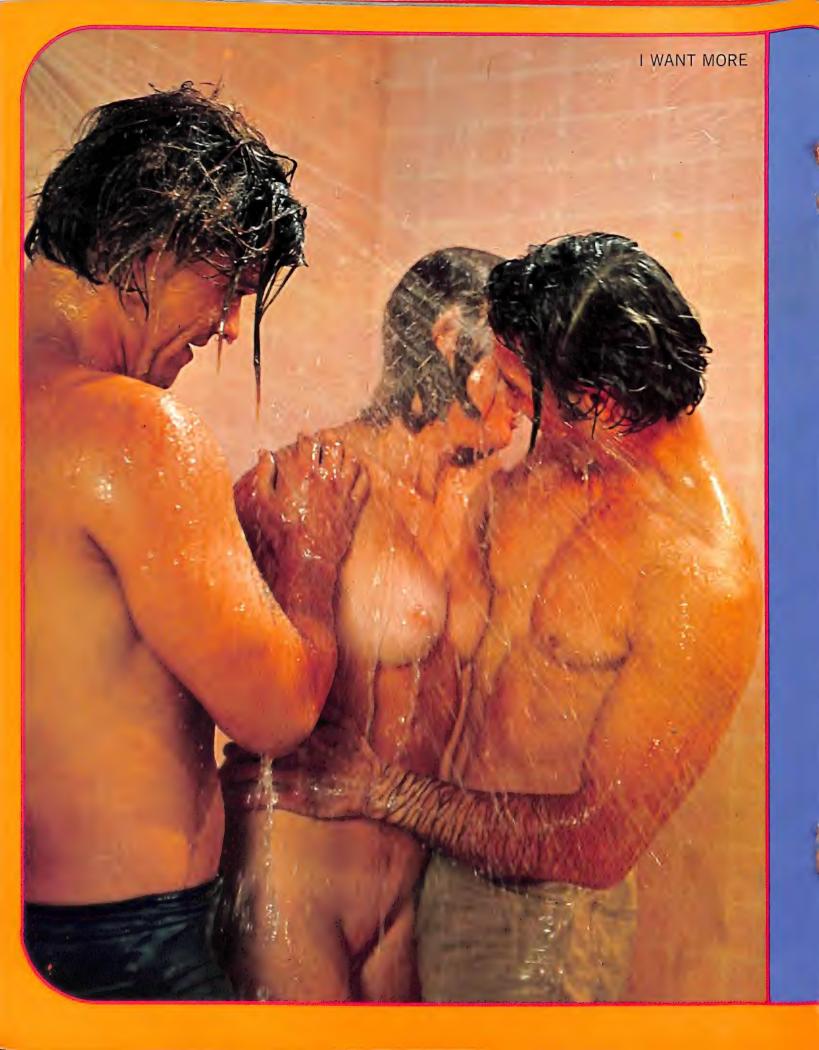

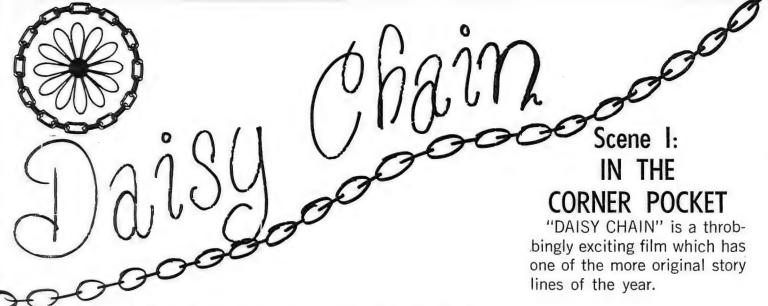

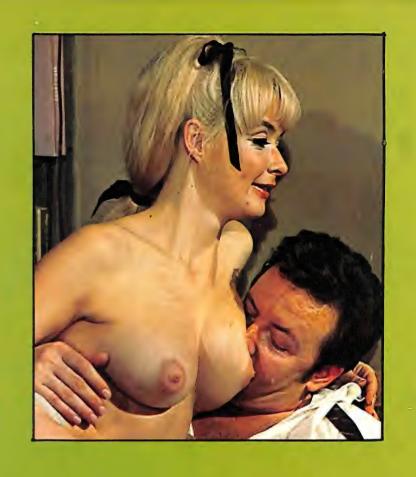

More high-flying adventures of the Daisy Chain swingers . . . the only way to fly!

It's about a group of airline stewardesses, pilots and select passengers who are members of a private club called the "Daisy Chain Club." They identify themselves with a special pin and membership card.

Scene II: BARE IN THE AIR

The airline swingers who are members of the club often don't wait to hit the ground before they play their fun little games.

In this scene, the girls and guys get together at 40,000 feet for some pleasure . . . yet another way to fly.

THE ADDRESS KNOWN THE WORLD OVER

First they put maximum effort into remodeling the house, giving special attention to the "work rooms." By the time they're finished, the house literally sparkles.

Now comes the twist: they send out invitations to nearby servicemen to attend their giant housewarming party. A clue as to what is to come is provided when three passing sailors, curious as to what's inside the renovated house, decide to visit during a three-day pass.

Soon, our three original heroines are forced to bring in extra girls merely to handle the pentup desires of the three sailors.

Needless to say, the house on 69th Street does a booming business.

The film is a featurette, only 30 minutes long, but it packs more in that half hour than most feature-length pictures do in 70 minutes.

It is the story of Carol, who lives with her family on a lavish estate. While still in her teens, she carries on a steamy love affair with Helga, the family maid.
